

Go to the page <https://cat.eduroam.org>

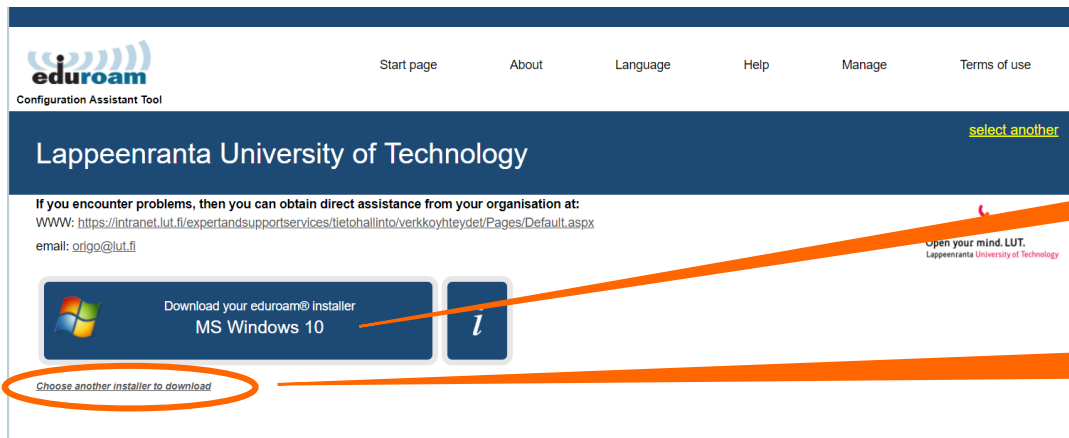

You can also install eduroam for you smartphone. Download free eduroam CAT – application from your application store.

Start installing by clickin Click here to download your eduroam installer.

Choose Lappeenranta University of Technology from organisation menu.

If you can't see right University in the menu you can search by name.

If you use Microsoft Windows 10 start installing here.

If you use another operating system click here and select right operating system from menu.

Installing should start automatically. If this not happen click the downloading link.

When eduroam installer window open select next.

Click download icon and then select open or open when ready.

Username is your student e-mail address
firstname.surname@student.lut.fi

Password is your LUT user account password.

Then select Install.

When installing is ready click Finish.

Select wireless network menu from the taskbar and join Eduroam by clicking Connect.

Remember when you change your LUT user account password you need to login Eduroam again.